More than 100 years military restricted areas of Europe 1815 and 1944 - 1945

WWTOURS & Remembrance is a battlefield tour organisation, active since 2014
By Rafaël J.M. DEROO

Join WWTOURS for your unforgettable and tailor-made guided visits to Europe's battlefields, war and military sites: Normandy and the D-Day-beaches, Market Garden and the Battle for the Scheldt in the Netherlands, Berchtesgaden / Zell am See, Berlin, the 1815 Waterloo battlefield and all other European historic war destinations. WWTOURS also has years of experience in guiding in the European Quarter and in the Military Quarter in Brussels.

- We will discuss your wishes and needs and set up a specific route for you and your party.
- We give online presentations on subjects of choice relating to your visit or interest.
- We can also provide content to make your own tour.

WWTOURS is member of the International Guild of Battlefield Guides and of the network of the Liberation Route Europe, and is an accredited guide at

- the Hartenstein Airborne Museum in Oosterbeek and Arnhem (Netherlands)
- the D-Day French-German Radar Museum in Douvres-la-Délivrande, Normandy (France)
- the Cotentin Tourism Board (France)
- London Official Guides (UK)
- FORTE CULTURA Cultural Route (Germany)

WWTOURS specialises in all European groups and groups from the United States, Canada and the UK.

FORTE CULTURA® is the European Culture Route for cultural heritage fortified monuments. It leads into the exciting world of "architectura militaris", in its magnificent and often hidden buildings and in its diverse experience offers. Take part in festivals, concerts, family festivals or historic battles in original scenery, discover unknown stories. Visit modern museums with interactive exhibitions and multimedia shows. Be surprised by rich nature and enjoy wonderful views.
